Birth: Aug. 11, 1765
Yorktown
York County
Virginia, USA

Death: 1843
DeKalb County
Missouri, USA

William Thornton I was the son of Mildred Longworth and Luke Thornton. Luke Thornton emigrated from Yorkshire, England to Yorktown, VA in 1760. Luke and Mildred had two children, William I and Betsy. William I served as a private in the 4th Troop 1st. Reg. Light Dragoons Virginia Troops, in the Revolutionary War and served in siege of Yorktown, VA.

William I married Martha Ann "Patsey" Owen on Oct. 31, 1785 in Lunenburg County, VA. She was the daughter of Barnett and Frances (Shookman or Royster) Owen. They had five children: Sarah "Sallie" (Thornton), William, Martha Patsey (Toney), Frances "Frankie" (Barnes) and James.

In 1804 the Thornton family moved from North Carolina to Madison CO, KY. In 1816 a number of Thornton, Todd and Adam families moved to Callaway Co, MO and settled near Fulton. In 1840 the clan who had been living in Callaway Co, moved to adjoining farms, making a community of kinfolks. They built homes, a church and a school house. They were Primitive Baptist with the first church called Bethlehem, located on Sec. 35 T 58 R 33 with Elder Jesse Todd as the pastor.

John DeShazer, was born in 1786, North Carolina, according to the 1850 DeKalb County, Missouri, census. It is deduced from the records that he died before 14 August 1854 near Stewartsville, DeKalb County, Missouri, as his children petition for partition the sale of his farm on that date (Bk. C, pg. 214, DeKalb Co., Courthouse, Maysville, MO). He married Sarah (Sally) Thornton on 6 May 1805, Madison County, Kentucky, according to the marriage bond he and William Thornton signed. Sarah Thornton, the daughter of William Thornton (1765-1843) and Patsy Owen, was born 1789, Rowan County, North Carolina (1850 U.S. census, DeKalb Co., MO). She apparently died between 11 October 1850 and 14 August 1854 as she was not listed among those receiving her husband's estate. It is assumed both John and Sally were buried in the Thornton Cemetery which was two and a half miles from their farm. No headstones were erected in the cemetery before the late 1860s but "rocks or blocks" were placed on the graves.

The children (second generation) of john DeShazer and Sarah (Sally) Thornton were;
+2. William DeShazer b. ca 1807, KY, d. after 27 Mar. 1856 and m. 21 July 1831 Jacksonville, Morgan Co., Ill, Elizabeth Albem & 15 Feb. 1849 Mary Dasmon.

Jemina married Alexander Herbert on 20 Apr. 1834; she married Anthony New on 3 Dec. 1835 in Morgan Co., Illinois. Her birth date given at that time was 1809.

Alfred DeShazer was Jemina's brother.

In 1850, the U.S. Census finds Jemina DeShazer and her parents and brother Alfred living in DeKalb Co., MO. She is listed as being 40 years old. Elizabeth & William Adams live nearby.

An 1860 U.S. Census for Green Township, Platte Co., MO lists Jemina New at age 53.

The 1870 U.S. Census for Bazaar Township, Chase Co., Kansas shows Jemina New living with the William and Sarah Addams. There were other Addams families nearby. She is listed as being 62 years old and born in KY. Her sister Elizabeth married an Addams. Her sister eventually moved to Sheridan, Yamhill Co., Oregon.

She died in the community known as Oak Creek, Douglas Co., Oregon.

Learn about upgrading this memorial...

Birth:	Jan. 5, 1825 Indiana, USA
Death:	Nov. 15, 1905 Roseburg Douglas County Oregon, USA

Frances Martha DeShazer was the ninth child of John DeShazer (1786-1854) and Sarah (Sally) Thornton. She was born 5 January 1825, Martin Co., Indiana, but no record found as to where her parents were living. Since her brother, John (1815-1889) was born in Indiana, there should have been an 1820 census listing John and Sally DeShazer but none was found. A Jonathan DeShazer was found who could have been John's (No. 1) twin. It is possible the parents of Frances were living in another state and later moved back to Indiana before Frances was born in 1825. Frances Deshazer died 9 November 1905 according to the 14 November Salem, Oregon, Daily statesman obituary and the tombstone; however her death certificate No. 1324 stated she died on 15 November 1905 of measles and the doctor lasted attended her on 12 November. She was visiting her son, Charles Mathews, in Roseburg, Douglas County, Oregon, when she became ill; however, her home was in Salem, Marion County, Oregon. She married on 15 November 1846, DeKalb county, Missouri, William Simpson Matthews, son of William Matthews born North Carolina and Mary Simpson born Tennessee. William Simpson Matthews was born 27 December 1827, Howard county, Missouri and died 18 August 1908, Oregon. Both Frances DeShazer and her husband are buried in Oak Creek Cemetery, Douglas County, Oregon, where so many of their relatives were buried.
It is amazing how unsettled the people living in the early and mid-nineteenth century were. They moved to various locations. Frances DeShazer was born in Indiana, was living in Edgar County, Illinois when 1830 census taken, then to Morgan county, Illinois, in 1835 and on to Clinton County, Missouri by 1840. Her marriage license stated: "I William C. Garrett a minister of the Gospel of the regular bab(p)tist church certify that on the 15th day of November 1846 I joined in marriage William Matthis & Francis DeShazor. Given under my hand this the 18th day of Nov 1846." (Bk. B, pg. 8, DeKalb co., MO) DeKalb County was formed in 1845 from Clinton County; so Frances may have been living in the same location where she was living when the 1840 census was taken in Clinton County. William Matthews was listed at Holton, Jefferson Township, Jackson County, Kansas, in the 1860 census as a farmer with his oldest daughter Mary 12, fourth child Sarah 6, William 3 and Parthena 6 months, but his wife, Frances, and oldest sons, John and James,

The following land transactions show further movements of William s. Matthews and Frances DeShazer. On 6 June 1865, Joseph E. Hocker, Nemaha County, Kansas, sold to William s. Matthews "Lot No. 62 in the town of Lincoln in said County together with the Lincoln steam mill" which was secured by "seven pair of steers estimated at eight hundred and ninety dollars..." The mortgage was paid off at Seneca, Kansas, 27 February 1866 (Vol. C, pg 717).

On 19 October 1866, William S. Matthews and wife "Francis" sold 78 12/100 acres for $300 to Benjamin H. Clark. The land was described as "the north half of the Northwest Fractional quarter of Section five (5) Township Four (4) of Range thirteen (13)" lying in Nemaha County (Bk. E, pp 68 & 69).

On 5 April 1870, Robert and Parthenia DeShazer appointed "Wm S. Matthews our attorney for us in our stead to sell and convey the following lands in Nemaha County Kansas to wit: The North half of the North East quarter of Section twenty four Township two (2) Range twelve also to collect and see for all sums of money that is now or may become due to us..." Robert DeShazer was the nephew of Frances (DeShazer) Matthews, and they had gone by train to Oregon. (Bk. H, pg. 17)

There, undoubtedly, were other land transactions involving the William S. Matthews family but they were not researched.

The U.S. census taken 3 August 1870 showed the Wm. S. Matthews family living at Seneca, Valley Township, Nemaha County, Kansas, in house 86. The son, James Matthews had married at the age of eighteen and he and his sixteen-year-old wife were living with his parents. At that time, William S. Matthews said he owned $4000 in land and his personal items were valued at $1900.

The Matthews family, consisting of four sons and two daughters, moved to Oregon at different times. The first Oregon move in the spring of 1879 included the parents, their daughter, Sarah and husband A. W. Drager, and undoubtedly the two youngest children aged sixteen and twelve. It took them eleven days to go by rail from Council Bluff, Iowa, to Oakland, California. The two families filled an entire coach. They transferred to a boat in San Francisco, went to Portland, Oregon, via the Columbia and Willamette rivers, and then again traveled by rail to Roseburg, Douglas County, Oregon, the terminus of the Oregon and California Railroad at that time. They lived at Oak Creek in the Mt. Scott Precinct, ten miles northeast of Roseburg. William S. Matthews was described by his nephew, Fred Drager, as "a Hard-Shell Baptist Preacher." He was an elder in the 24' X 40' church at the Primitive (or Old School)_ Baptist group which was organized at Oak Creek in 1871 (History of Jackson, Josephine, Douglas, Curry & Coos Counties, Oregon, pg. 442, published in 1884 by A.G. Walling Publishers, Portland, Oregon).

The Matthews Family Historian, Mae (Matthews) Cochran, a niece, in 1843 said her grandparents moved from oak Creek to a farm near the Pringle District, then to a place in south Salem, Marion County, Oregon, between the Odd Fellows Cemetery and the Catholic Cemetery where they lived for a number of years before moving to a farm three miles below Lincoln, Polk County, Oregon, called the Stratton Place. They lived there about ten years and then moved to Oak Street,, Salem, where they spent the remainder of their lives.

She recalled her grandfather driving his faithful horse, Pilot, to attend church every weekend.
William S. Matthews was a Baptist Circuit Rider on weekends and always faithful in connection with church activities.
From her photograph, Frances DeShazer was a rather heavy, stern appearing woman with her hair parted down the middle as was the custom during that period. She must have been an understanding mother from commends made by children of their activities and remarks among the children about their siblings' character. Like most women in those days, she was a good seamstress and took in sewing after they moved to Salem. Her health must have been good as she lived to be over eighty.
The children (third generation) of Frances Martha DeShazer and William Simpson Matthews were:
1) Mary Jane Matthews b. ca 1848 & d. after 1860 when she was listed in the 1860 Holton, Jackson co., KS census as being twelve years old. No mention has been made concerning her by Matthews descendants other than that she died.
2) John Powell Matthews b. 22 July 1849, DeKalb Co., MO, d. 1936, El Reno, Canadian Co., OK & m. 1873 to Margaret Ann Points who d. May 1880 & in Oct. 1892 OK m. Mrs. Mary Ellen Ellison
3) James Matthews b. 5 Jan. 1852, DeKalb Co., MO, d. 5 Aug. 1944, North Salem, Marion Co., Oreg. & m. 17 Apr. 1870 Rhoda Ann Simon
4) Sarah Ellen (Ella) Matthews b. 25 July 1854, St. Joseph, Buchanan co., MO, d. 22 July 1934, Salem, Marion Co., Oreg. & m. 9 Oct. 1870 Seneca, Nemaha Co, KS Adolphus William Drager.
5) William David Matthews b. 21 Dec. 1856, DeKalb Co., MO d. 19 Jan. 1952, Salem, Marion Co., Oreg. & m. L. Icedore (Icy) Miller.

Added by: S.L.S.O.

Billings Gazette (MT), 16 Apr 1973

Mrs. Lula Mae Russell, 91, died Saturday at her ranch home west of Red Lodge.

She was born Apr. 21, 1881, in Clarksdale, Mo., a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Torton. She was married to David Russell on Feb. 7, 1906, in Hemple, Mo. They farmed in Missouri until 1922 when they came to Montana and farmed in the Red Lodge area. Mr. Russell died Apr. 21, 1949.

Survivors include three sons, Raymond L. of Red Lodge, John W. of Roseburg, Ore., and Melvin E. of Red Lodge; a daughter, Mrs. Thelma McCartney of Shepherd; twin sisters, Mrs. Lillie Swails in Missouri, and Mrs. Minnie Poland of Columbus; eight grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Services at the Olcott Funeral Home, Red Lodge. Burial in Tony cemetery.

Learn about removing the ads from this memorial...

Birth: Dec. 10, 1835
Callaway County
Missouri, USA

Death: Nov. 17, 1916
Holt County
Missouri, USA

Daniel was the 6th child of James Thornton and Sarah Young Lampkins. First married Emily Varvel in 1857 in Doniphen, Kansas. They had 2 children. Emily died in 1864 in Missouri. He then married her sister Mary Ann Varvel in 1967 in Jefferson County, Kansas. They had 7 children.

Daniel was a brick mason/plasterer by trade and at one time (about 1857) was in business with William Thornton (his brother) and a partner Elder Maupin, in a Masonry business in White Cloud Doniphan County Kansas.
Daniel and William Thorton set out from Stewartsville Mo to migrate to Oregon when Kansas was first open to settlement in 1855. After crossing the Missouri River North of Sparks Kansas in Doniphan County they camped. A farmer there found out that they were Masons. He asked them to build a stone barn. Daniel and William spent over a year building that barn which stands today between Sparks and White Cloud. This barn is on the National Historic Registry.
After that year their familys' were settled in White Cloud. Daniel and William set up shop in White Cloud along with Elder Maupin.
According to "Gone Home" page 397, Daniel Thorton did the brick work of the Van Buskirk Proud Building and in 1881 Plastered the Court House in St Joseph.
On Sep 9, 1863 he and his brother William enlisted in Civil War and mustered out on Aug 11, 1865 at Leavenworth, Kansas. After he married Mary Ann "Mollie" they later moved back to Holt County, Missouri where he died in 1916.
His brother William moved to Oklahoma Territory by 1890 where he died in Mustang, Cleveland, Oklahoma in 1906

Birth: 1776
Lunenburg County
Virginia, USA

Death: 1846
Lawrence County
Indiana, USA

John Leatherwood Owen, 70, passed away January 8, 1846 near Bedford in Lawrence County, Indiana. He was born about 1776 near Lunenburg in Lunenburg County, Virginia.

John is of Welsh descent, the son of Barnett Owen and his wife, Frances Whitlow. Then, in turn, John married Mary Polly Richardson, daughter of Jonathan Richardson and his wife, Mary Ryan.

After their marriage in Madison County, Kentucky on June 1, 1801, John and Mary settled in Lawrence County, Indiana. John may have married again after Mary died.

Bloomington (Monroe County, Indiana)
Evening World, February 8, 1917, p. 1.

CHARLES S. REID DEAD

Charles S. Reid, age 50 years, died at 4:30 this morning of diabetes at the home of his sister Mrs. Frank Turner, Avoca, Ind. He was formerly a resident of Bedford, having been born there until seven years ago when he came to Bloomington to work for the Consolidated Stone Co. For the last few years he has been doing job contract work for himself and was employed at the Hoadley Stone Co., at the time of his death. He went to Bedford a week ago last Saturday, and while there took sick and death resulted.

Mr. Reid is survived by his widow, Mrs. Cora B. Reid, three children, Mrs. Charles Leech of Marchantville, N. J., Mrs. John Agnew and Noyes E. Reid of this city. Four brothers, Marshall of Indianapolis, John of New Albany, George and Thomas of Bedford; four sisters, Mrs. W. H. Owens and Miss Emma Reid of Bedford, Mrs. Joseph Wright of Orleans, and Mrs. Ida Turner, of Avoca, Ind.

Funeral services will be at the home of W. H. Owens, Bedford, Saturday afternoon at 2:30 by the Rev. W. W. Whitney, and the Rev. John Williams. Burial at Green Hill Cemetery at Bedford.

Birth: 1805
North Carolina, USA
Death: 1886
Jackson County
Indiana, USA

Corbin Fish, 80, passed away 1 Apr 1886 in Norman, Indiana. He was born 19 Dec 1805 near Catawba in Lincoln County, North Carolina to William Fish and his wife, Sarah Nancy Kale. (William and Sarah are buried at the Fish Cemetery in Lawrence County, Indiana.)

Corbin married Nancy Owen, daughter of John Leatherwood Owen and his wife, Mary Polly Richardson. Corbin and Nancy were wed 24 Aug 1826 in Lawrence County and had 12 children; William, Mary, John, Rian, James, Martha, Henry, Sidney, Wesley, Sarah, Isaac and Nancy.

Corbin migrated from Lincoln County, North Carolina to Orange County, Indiana with his family in 1816, but the family quickly moved to Lawrence County. Then, when he married, Corbin decided to move a few miles east into Jackson County where he set up his household. He was one of the founders of the Liberty Church/Cemetery in Norman, Indiana.

Note: John Leatherwood Owen and Mary Polly (Richardson) Owen are buried at Leatherwood Cemetery in Lawrence County.

Birth:	Jan. 4, 1837 Jackson County Indiana, USA
Death:	Dec. 31, 1919 Jackson County Indiana, USA

Seymour Democrat, Pub. 7 Jan 1920: OWEN TOWNSHIP MAN EXPIRES SUDDENLY - William Kindred, Aged 82, Dies At Home Of Son - Taken Sick While Visiting Fur Traps. - A skunk den some distance from the home of Bart Kindred, Owen township farmer, promising a rich reward in pelts led the father, William N. Kindred, aged 82 years, accompanied by his grandson Troy, to make arrangements Wednesday morning to dig out the fur-bearing animals.

While in the height of the operation a sudden illness came upon the aged man. The grandson immediately started home with his older companion and on the way was obliged to stop three times that he might regain strength to go ahead. When the home was reached the grandfather, a stranger to any form of illness before, rested for a moment against the house then leaning backward, fell to the ground dead.

County Coroner George T. Manuel answering a telegraph call, held an inquest over the body and pronounced death as resulting from a cerebral hemorrhage.

William N. Kindred was a well known retired farmer of Owen township. For a number of years he made his home with his son at whose place he died yesterday. The funeral was set for this afternoon at 1 o'clock, to be held from the Liberty Baptist church of which the deceased was a prominent and enthusiastic member. Interment was made in the Liberty cemetery. The Rev. Thomas Cummins, officiated during the funeral services. - Seymour Democrat.

Death: unknown
Lawrence County
Indiana, USA

Malinda (Cummings) Fish passed away near Heltonville in Lawrence County, Indiana somewhere between 1880 and 1900. Her death date is approximated because it doesn't appear on her grave marker. However, she is listed among the burials in the Liberty Cemetery catalog. At any rate, she was born 30 Mar 1840, the daughter of James Cummings and his wife, Delilah Johnson.

Malinda married Henry A. Fish, the son of Corbin Fish and his wife, Nancy Owen. Malinda and Henry were wed 31 Jan 1858 in Jackson County, Indiana and had six children; Sarah, Cordelia, John, George, Della and Elmer.

Ezra Arland Fish, 50, passed away 11 Oct 1946 near Norman in Jackson County, Indiana. Known as "Happy," he was born near Norman 13 Apr 1896, the son of Logan Fish and his wife, Rosanna Cummings.

There have been several reports of Ezra playing "fine fiddle" at square dances. He was a veteran of World War I and served in the U.S. Army Signal Corps, Company B of the 319th Field Signal Battalion.

Ezra had 8 siblings; Guy, Herman, Norman, Roxana, Minnie, Fred, Everett and Eathel. In addition, we believe he had a son, Raymond, and any information pertaining to Ezra's wife would be greatly appreciated.

Huston Crawford of Bedford, IN, died Friday, October 11, 2002, at his residence. Born on November 8, 1912, he was the son of William Henry and Ida (Thomas) Crawford. He married Wilma Evelyn Lyon on January 23, 1937, and she survives.

Surviving with his wife are two daughters, Linda Ann Stark of Kissimmee, FL, and Josephine Stuckey of Bedford, IN; one son, Warren Crawford of High land, IL; six grandchildren, and seven great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by two brothers, C.E. and Walter Crawford; eight sisters: Clemma Allen, Bertha Peed, Lola Dixon, Ruby Flinn, Lottie Beaver, Annis Guthrie, Kathryn Sallee, and Avanel Crawford (in infancy).

He retired as assistant postmaster in Bedford in 1967. He was a 1929 graduate of Tunnelton High School, a 1933 graduate of DePauw University, and a member of the Protestant faith. He was also a member of the Cedar Lodge #161 F&AM in Leesville, Scottish Rite Valley of Indianapolis, Bedford York Rite, Royal Order of Scotland, Indiana Farm Bureau, Bedford Kiwanis, National Association of Retired Federal Employees, Bedford Fraternal Order of Polis, and was very active in community service.

Services for Huston Crawford will be at 2:00 p.m. Sunday, October 13th, at the Day & Carter Mortuary with Bro. Mike Davis and Warren Crawford officiating. Burial will follow in Pinhook Cemetery.

Note: This memorial is not my direct family member and was added as a courtesy for research purposes. Any family member who wishes to obtain ownership can contact me and I will be happy to transfer ownership or delete my entry.

FINNEY CO, KNS — HISTORY

Mr. Stone also developed several irrigated farms in the Arkansas Valley. He built the Stone Hotel and Stone Apartments.

Rufus G. Stone died August 8, 1937, having suffered a heart attack in April of that year. Age 76.

Susan Stone died October 23, 1945. She had been in ill health since 1938 and died of a stroke suffered ten days earlier. Age 87.

They are survived by two daughters: Edith, Mrs. H. E. Rountree, Seneca, Kansas and Vera, Mrs. Harold Norman, Bannockburn, Deerfield, Illinois.

There are three grandchildren: William Stone Rountree, Indianapolis, Robert Zane Norman, Ann Arbor, and Barbara Jane Norman, Washington, D. C.

There are also two great-grandchildren, Patricia and Robert Rountree, Indianapolis.

WILLIAM STONE

William Stone was born in England, May 29th, 1852. He was united in marriage to Mary Hirst, March 13th, 1873, at Melton, Yorkshire, England. Mr. and Mrs. Stone with four small children, Minnie, Frederick, Maryann and Matilda, left English shores in 1881 for the United States and lived in Michigan and Indiana for several years. William and Elmer were born during the time they lived in Indiana. They moved to Finney County in 1890 where the family endured the hardships of pioneer days.

At the time the Stone family moved to Garden City, there was still open range and William homesteaded a sizeable acreage of land Southwest of Garden City. The family lived on the ranch for a short time, later making their home in Garden City.

William Stone passed away April 27th, 1911, and Mrs. Stone passed away August 30th, 1932.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM LEWIS THOMAS

In the spring of 1905, Mr. and Mrs. William Lewis Thomas and their family came to Finney County from Stafford County in a covered wagon, driving their cattle through, and homesteading South of Pierceville, Kansas.

Lewis Thomas was born at Muscotah, Kansas, on July 17th, 1869. Dolly Ann Anderson was born January 13th, 1870, at Atchison. They were married at Muscotah on April 20th, 1890. They had five children: Jim, Hattie, Cora, Mary and Gladys.

Mr. Thomas served as County Commissioner for Finney County from the Third District in 1929-1933.

The Thomas' lived South of Pierceville until they moved to Garden City in 1942. Mr. Thomas passed away April 19th, 1947, and Mrs. Thomas still lives at her home here in Garden City.

C. E. VANCE

(Courtesy Frank L. Stowell)

Charles E. Vance was born May 31, 1878 near Effingham, Illinois. His boyhood was spent on a farm and his early schooling was obtained in a country district near Vandalia, where his parents moved when he was an infant.

When United States declared war against Spain, Vance enlisted with Company H, Fifth Illinois Volunteers. After the war he went to Texas, and in 1901 began studying shorthand in the office of an uncle who was a court reporter in San Antonio. He also took up the study of law in San Antonio. On September 1, 1903, he went to Parsons, Kansas where he worked in the office of the general attorney of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroad. He remained in that position a year, when he was given a position as court reporter at Independence, Kansas, where he stayed three years, until he heard of an opening in Garden City.

On September 1, 1907, he took the position as court reporter under W. H. Thompson, who was then district judge of the 32nd District. Mr. Vance had continued the study of law during the years he was a court reporter, and in January, 1908, was admitted to the bar. The following September he began practicing law in the office of W. E. Hutchison in Garden City, where he remained until Lilburn OWENS, one of the pioneers of Greene County, after whom the town of Owensburg was named, died last Saturday at Owensburg at the advanced age of nearly ninety years. He established the first blacksmith shop in that town and for more than forty years worked at that trade. It is recorded that "on the first Monday in August, 1842, Lilbern OWENS commenced work on his blacksmith shop in this town. At the same time he got out timber for a dwelling and a stable. As soon as the dwelling was finished the family moved in, and this was the beginning of Owensburg. Thirty or forty men from near and far, who were wanting a blacksmith shop nearer than Springville, turned out and helped put up the buildings—done all in one day." In March 1848, the place had taken on the appearance of a village and the county surveyor was employed to lay off a number of lots. It was the intention to call the town Owensville but it was found that there was already one postoffice by that name in this State and so the name Owensburg was adopted instead. Mr. Owens was noted for his great energy and his industrious habits—always hard at work at something. After he gave up blacksmithing he became a farmer, and on the farm he was also known for his tireless energy. He was united in marriage three times and by each wife he had a large number of children, being the father of about eighteen or twenty altogether. His first wife was Elizabeth OWEN, a sister of Mrs. Isabel HERT, of this place; and he was an uncle of Mrs. James STALCUP; the second was Mary McDOWELL; and the third was Mary MITCHELL. He was an estimable citizen, possessed of many manly qualities, and had long been a member of the Baptist church. The funeral services were held Sunday from the M. E. church at Owensburg and the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at that place.

Birth: Nov. 24, 1829
Death: May 5, 1906

Mrs. Isabel HERT, for sixty years a resident of Greene County, died her last Saturday morning at 7 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Alice FIELDS, as the result of a stroke of paralysis. In her death Bloomfield loses one of the most estimable women. She had so many excellent qualities that none knew her but admired and honored her. Her maiden name was OWEN and she was born in Lawrence County, November 24, 1829; died in Bloomfield, May 5, 1906; aged 76 years, 5 months 11 days. She was married in 1846 to William HERT, and to this union were born twelve children—six sons and six daughters—six of whom, three sons and three daughters survive their mother. Her companion died in 1875 leaving her for more than thirty years a widow. The surviving children are: James G. HERT and Mrs. Alice FIELDS of this place; Alvin T. HERT, of Louisville; K. O. HERT and Mrs. Frank WELLS, of Indianapolis; and Mrs. Harold L. ARNOLD of Mackinac, Michigan. About the time of her marriage she came to make her home in Greene County—and this county was home continuously until her death, residing at Owensburg until 1887, and since that year she had lived in Bloomfield. For a number of years she had made her home with her son, James G. HERT, but the past winter she spent with her daughter, Mrs. Alice FIELDS. She became a member of the Christian church at an early age and remained a faithful believer in its doctrines and a loyal supporter of the Master's cause until she was called from her earthly labors. The story of her life is a story of devotion to her home and her family and of loyalty to the church of her choice. It was in these two institutions—the home and church—that her graces shone out pre-eminently. During the last four or five years she had been in failing health and had become quite frail and it was only by the most nursing and attention that her life was sparred so long. Though her bodily faculties had failed she retained her mental faculties until the very end. She was a woman of superior intelligence and even after she became confined to her room she still retained a keen interest in the church and in the affairs of the community. When she went to bed Friday evening she was apparently as well as usual but in the after part of the night the family was aroused and her condition was so serious that a physician was summoned. But the Angel of Death had called and at seven o'clock she peacefully passed away as if falling to sleep. The remains lay in state at the residence of Mrs. Alice FIELDS Monday afternoon from 2 to 6 o'clock and were viewed by many friends. The remains were then taken to the residence of J. G. HERT where the funeral services were held Tuesday morning at

Birth: Oct. 27, 1849
Death: Sep. 24, 1916

James G. HERT, one of the most progressive and highly esteemed citizens of Bloomfield, and widely known throughout Greene county, passed away Sunday morning about six o'clock following a few hours illness of heart disease. Although he had suffered from arterio-sclerosis, his death at this time was unexpected. James G. HERT was the son of William and Isabel (OWEN) HERT. He was born at Owensburg, Greene Co., Ind., October 27, 1849; he was married Jan. 2, 1881 to Margaret SHORT, who survives him. He taught school at the early age of 16 years and continued to teach for five years. He then served as deputy for his uncle, Henry OWEN, who was treasurer of Greene county. After this he engaged with his father in merchandising in Owensburg, till his father's death, which occurred in 1875. He continued in business at Owensburg till January 1887, when he moved to Bloomfield. Here he formed a partnership with John W. GRAHAM, which continued a number of years, and identified Mr. Hert with the business interests of Bloomfield and community. After Mr. Graham retired the business was carried on under the firm name of J. G. Hert & Co., for some years. Mr. Hert retired from business about six years ago but could not be inactive. He owned and conducted a farm near Owensburg on which was a fine apple orchard. He became an expert in this special line of fruit growing. He was a director in "The Bloomfield Trust Company" and "The Building and Loan Association." He could not be idle but led a busy active life unto the end. Since his retirement from business a few years ago he had devoted most of his time to the work of the Greene County Anti-Saloon League, of which he was president; the Greene county Horticultural Society, the Bloomfield Library, the chautauqua here and the Masonic and Odd Fellow Lodges. A few days ago he was appointed secretary and chief promoter for the Greene County Products Show to be held here Oct. 12-14. Early in life he became a member of the Christian church at Owensburg and identified himself with the Bloomfield church when he removed there. He was a natural leader in all the church activities, being made an elder of the church and also Bible School Superintendent, in which office he served most faithfully and efficiently for over twenty years. He gained the utmost confidence and most sincere respect of not only his immediate community but throughout the county. He took the most profound interest in every movement for the betterment of the people. Besides his widow, he is survived by one brother, A. T. HERT of Louisville, Ky., and two sisters, Mrs. Alice FIELDS of this place and Mrs. Harold L.
